

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

New York.—Dr. Frederick A. Miller, said to be surgeon in workhouse at Blackwell's island, arrested, charged with having narcotics in possession. Many arrests in anti-drug crusade.

Wagoner, Okla.—T. H. Hunt, traveling photographer, shot and killed Miss Pearl Lamotte of Indiana, visiting at home of local chief of police. Had been denied admission to residence.

West Salem, Wis.—Brick building collapsed into foundation excavation on Main st. Several laborers narrowly escaped.

Girard, Ill. — Telephone and telegraph wires down and several buildings damaged by Wind storm.

New York. — Victoriano Huerta, former president of Mexico, has invested $300,000 (Mex.) in Harlem real estate.

Paris, Ill.—Charge of vote buying brought against Mrs. Hattie O'Neill in recent elections ordered dismissed.

Warren, O.—May Unger of Allentown, Pa., comely and 19, arrested, disguised as boy, for robbing railroad detective of gun and badge.

Fostoria, O. — Half section hands employed by Fostoria & Fremont electric railway own automobiles and two others own motorcycles.

New York.—Frederick W. Snook, broker, Milwaukee, Wis., arrested on warrant charging embezzlement of $800.

Marshalltown, Ia. — Dr. Pearl E. Somer flew 11 miles at the rate of 110 miles an hour to reach a patient six minutes after the call.

Los Angeles.—Mary Pickford, the highest salaried moving picture actress in world is being sued for $75 back rent and $36.44 worth of damage done by her pet dog.

Battle Creek, Mich. — Inheritance tax on estate of late C. W. Post computed to be $112,000. Largest in history of state.

New York.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman U. S. Steel corporation, badly shaken up when another auto collided with his.

Seattle, Wash.—Despite fact that husband gave nearly quart of blood that her life might be saved, Mrs. Wm. C. Speidel, wife of noted doctor, dead.

Milwaukee. — Gen. Samuel Pearson, lecturer and former Boer war general, says petition will be filed in circuit court for injunction against Milwaukee manufacturers shipping war munitions to the allies.

Rock Island. — F. M. Ossinger, 60, locked himself in bedroom, turned on gas and struck match. Dead. House wrecked.

New York.—To get money for the movies two boys dismantled $2,000 organ in a vacant church and sold metal pipes for 75 cents.

New York.—Answering his wife's plea for separation, Wm. K. Rack charged she served roast veal on Sunday, cold veal on Monday, stewed veal on Tuesday and veal meatballs on Wednesday. He dined out Thursday.

BITS OF NEWS

Sealed verdict gave Mrs. Ella N. Marx judgment in suit for $5,750 loaned to Otoman Z. Hanish, "little father of the sun cult."

Nick Kulas, 65, watchman, held on serious charges in story told by Mary Grabarski, 14, 3517 N. Clark. Girl missing.

Mrs. S. Cochran, 63, W. Erie, had right leg fractured by auto at Rush and Ohio. Driver not arrested.

Morris Gluckman rescued by policeman when he fell into sewer at 14th and Racine.

Babe Shannon arrested for trying to evade payment of Hotel Morrison bill. Came from Pittsburgh.

Detective questioning Sam Carvalho and Frank Ingallinier for possible connection with murder of Alexander Prince, jeweler.

Police captains called to office of Chief Healey for conference. Instructed to enforce discipline strictly.